

Online Master's Degree Plan of Study (tentative) 2nd cohort — Fall 2010 to Summer 2012

Fall 2010 (6 credits)

- MCOM 704: Introduction to Graduate Studies (3), August 30 to October 22
- MCOM 574: Media Administration & Management (3), October 25 to December 17

Spring 2011 (6 credits)

- MCOM 787: Research Methods in Communication (3)
- MCOM 615: Opinion Writing (3) or MCOM 653: Mass Communication Teaching Methods

Summer 2011 (6 credits)

- MCOM 617: History of Journalism (3) or • MCOM 530: Media Law (3)
- MCOM 693: Workshop (2)
- MCOM 791: Independent Study (1)

Note: The workshop will be on campus in early June for four days. Students who are unable to come to campus or who have already taken history of journalism and media law as an undergraduate will have other options.

Fall 2011 (6 credits)

- MCOM 616: Mass Media in Society (3)
- MCOM 519: Women in Media (3)

Spring 2012 (5 to 6 credits)

- MCOM 513: International Media(3) or • elective (3)
- Second class TBD

Summer 2012 (2 or 3 credits)

- MCOM 788: Master's Research Problem/Project

Students who take opinion writing will need 3 credits of 788 to reach the required 32 credits.

Students who defend their project successfully by mid-July will graduate in the summer.

Possible electives (full-semester classes)

AHED 755: Principles of College Teaching

EDER 761: Information Literacy

EDFN 563: Methods of Teaching English as Second Language

EDFN 730: Current Issues in Education

SPCM 510: Organizational Communication